NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Dying Year.

There is always a tinge of sadness attaching to the thought that the life of the Old Year is slowly but surely ebbing away. Most of us have something to regret; some duty which we have neglected; some wrong, unknown perhaps to others, but none the less conscience-pricking; some loved one lost to us, maybe, by death or perhaps by our own fault; these wrongs and omissions we would give much to repair, but what is done is beyond recall, and we can but think sadly over them as the last moments of the Old year are slipping swiftly by and make good resolutions for the future, in the hope that some of them at least may outlast the year which is shortly to be born.We in Hongkong have some varied experiences to look back upon during the year which is now drawing to a close. During its early months the whole Colony was plunged into mourning by the death of our late Queen, Victoria the Good, next followed the plague and the Cochrane Street collapse, minor accidents and disasters have been moderately numerous, and death has claimed more prominent Hongkong residents than has been the case for several years past. The year has been one of strife for many, a time of struggle against the ever increasing cost of living, with which salaries have not keptMESSRS. COTTAM & CO. for FOOT-BALL BOOTS.pace. Still, most of us have been able to keep our heads above water and we can all hope for better times in the new year.But the coming year promises to be a busy one for us. It is evident that it must decide whether China is to be really opened up to European enterprise or whether the conservative party will make another attempt to oust the foreigner and his goods. If, as we hope, matters tend towards the gradual opening up of the country, we shall see a great expansion in trade and we of the Colony cannot fail to benefit thereby. Then too, an attempt is to be made to get our own house in order. Cleansing operations are in progress throughout the City as a precaution against the plague, sanitary experts are on the way out to advise us how best to improve the sanitary condition of the Colony generally, and every effort is to be made to rid us of the yearly visitation of plague which plays such havoc with our trade and business generally. The tramway scheme may be expected to become more in evidence as the year progresses and several other beneficial works are in hand, which will all tend to add to the health and comfort of the Colony.Our little worries seem very real to us here, but, as compared with the great undertakings going on the world over, they are in reality of very little consequence to any but ourselves. Still, although we are but a speck upon the map of the British Empire, we like to imagine that we are a very important one, and our little bickerings, ambitions and undertakings are as dear and as real to us as those which concern nations. Let us hope that the coming year will see our quarrels one with another cease, our ambitions realized and our undertakings brought each to a successful issue.TELEGRAMS.

MR. T. EDWARDS, the featherweight pugillarger cities of Japan. He will return here in ship of the Colony, with the winner of the two contests to come off before that time.CRICKET:—There will be a cricket match are gravely concerned for her. She is believed to be wasting away, and her mental attitude is that she is only waiting the summons to join her husband. The widow of the lamented President, excepting short drives, remains at home in the little wooden house on North Market street, made famous by the pilgrimages of thousands of voters who swore fealty to McKinley in 1896 and again in 1900, and which has entertained many of the best-known statesmen of the Nation.MR. E. B. KERSHAW, the well-known Australian bicycle rider, is in the City, and intends to ride in the races to-morrow at Taikoo. He is the scratch man in the five mile race, giving several good men heavy handicaps.

He has had great difficulty in securing a racing machine, not having brought his own wheel, and may not make as good a showing as his record at home justifies. As he intends to remain in the Colony we hope to see him in some future races, when he is in better condition and has his own bicycle.RICKSHAW ACCIDENT:—Inspector St.
Clair, of the Sanitary Board, was enjoying a rickshaw ride last evening in company with a friend, and as they approached the Cricket Ground a rickshaw coming from the other direction endeavoured to pass between their vehicles and one other going the same way. A general tangle ensued, three rickshaws out of the four being overturned, and their occupants stretched full length on Queen's Road. Amidst a general exchange of compliments (?) in both the English and Chinese language the participants picked themselves up, and on taking an inventory of damages, found that one rickshaw had broken a shaft and Inspector St. Clair had lost his dignity.THREEPENCE APIECE ALL HOT!—Of all newspaper reading, commend us to the breach of promise action. For juicy, self-condemning human folly it has no equal, not even in the quack advertisement, the glib matrimonial offer, the fish and fowl of market

TWENTY NEW WARSHIPS, many of them cruisers, will shortly be offered by the Admiralty for building by public tender.

PRESSED STEEL is coming into use in America for the construction of railway wagons, and is likely to be adopted in England.

GREAT FRICTION exists at the War Office, and the early resignation of Lord Roberts may be expected. This is a rumour from Paris.

CHANGE OF NAME—The name of the steamship Oro is to be changed to Yoshino Maru, as she is to trade in Japanese waters.

AN ADDRESS will be presented to His Excellency the Governor, Sir Henry A. Blake, G.C.M.G., at Government House, at noon on Thursday next, the 2nd January, by the Chinese Community of Hongkong.

THE PARIS EXHIBITION closed its doors a year ago, but the debris of the buildings still litters the ground, and the melancholy ruins of the unprofitable undertaking continue to disfigure the banks of the Seine.

COMMUNICABLE DISEASES—The return of cases of communicable disease occurring in the Colony during the week ended 28th December shows two cases of enteric fever, one European and one Chinese.

THE PHILADELPHIA CITY HALL, was designed to cost £600,000, and was to be completed within ten years, an extraordinary allowance of time. It has cost £5,000,000, and after thirty years is yet incomplete.

MR KRUGER is very fond of grouse. Two brace were sent to him every day by a London dealer (according to a London paper) and a bird, with a bottle of the best champagne that money can procure, forms his daily lunch.

STEAD'S STUPIDITY—Mr. Stead, in a lecture on the war at Bethnal Green, London, said many things in his own peculiar vein. We are under "the brand of Cain," he was saying, "by lies," and have committed every crime except the shooting of prisoners.

A SHOCKING AFFRAY occurred recently at the meeting of the municipality at the "Olympic" near Monte Carlo, when a discontented member of the Council shot the Mayor and another official. The latter is dead, and the Mayor was dangerously wounded in three places.

THE NUMBER OF VOLUMES in the British Museum Library, according to a recent counting, is now over 2,000,000. There are more than 160,000 volumes of English newspapers, counting Welsh as well as English, 100,000 volumes of Scottish papers, and 900,000 from Iceland.

THE STATE MEDAL, which will be issued next year on the occasion of the coronation of their Majesties the King and Queen Consort, will be designed and struck in the Royal Mint in accordance with long custom. Its execution has been entrusted to Mr. G. W. de Saulles, engraver to the Mint.

THE SHELL TRANSPORT AND TRADING COMPANY, of London, intend making Dover the first liquid fuel station in the English Channel. There is now a chain of these stations extending from Marseilles in China and Japan, and it is intended to set up depots at Dover, Liverpool and Havre.

NEW YEAR HOLIDAYS—On New Year's Day and 2nd January, the Post Office will be open from 8 to 2 p.m. only. Correspondence for local delivery on those days may be posted up to 9 a.m. The Night Box will be left open during the time the office is closed. The Money Order office will be entirely closed on both days.

THE SKATING SEASON has begun—at Niagara in London, where the band plays dreamy waltzes, electric lights shed a soft lustre on the scene, and there are cosy, palm-decked nooks where you can "sit out" and sip coffee and murmur carefully-considered impromptu witticisms into the ear of your charming companion.

A PECULIAR FIND of family plate has been recently made in Singapore. A gentleman who happened to be visiting some Chinese pawn-shops had his attention arrested by two pieces of plate with a crest on. On examining them he found that the crest was that of his mother's family, which had been lost for seventy-six years. They were originally the property of Major Hugh Davidson, who was military secretary to Sir Stamford Raffles, who died in Penang, and the gentleman who found them was that gentleman's great grandson.

THE CHINA PONY—Writing in the China Pony in the Sydney Morning Herald, Mr. A. B. Patterson, who was in Hongkong recently, makes the following concluding observations:—A China pony of 13 hands 1 in. in height has carried 11st and run 2 miles in 2 minutes 2 seconds—really wonderful for such a small looking little thing. We cannot make any money exporting horses to China except for racing, as for hard work the China pony, costing about £6, would be hard to match in the world, and Chinese cattle furnish very good beef at about 2d per lb.

BARON BRAMPTON, before he was elevated to the Lords, had several exciting experiences. He was always noted for his closeness of crop, and this led to a curious incident in a skittle alley in a country village. While out one day with a companion of like tastes, he stopped at a wayside inn, and was soon hard at skittles with two rustics. In an unguarded moment the fudge removed his cap. Thereupon one of the rustics, eyeing him suspiciously, said: "I don't mind bein' neighbourly, but I'm darned if I'm goin' to play skittles with a ticket-of-leave man."

LOSS OF THE S.S. "CLARA"

EIGHT EUROPEANS AND ELEVEN CHINESE MISSING.

GALLANT RESCUE BY THE S.S. "HANOI."

The S.S. Hanoi, Captain P. Merlees, belonging to Messrs. Martz & Co., arrived in the Harbour yesterday evening about seven, and reported the loss of the S.S. Clara (Messrs. Jebsen and Co.) on the North Bank, this side of Hoihow. The story of the wreck, as supplied by the 2nd officer, supplemented by what happened on the rescuing vessel runs as follows:—

The S.S. Clara left Hoihow for Hongkong about 2 p.m. on the 28th instant. The weather was fine but a heavy sea was running. At eight o'clock the same evening, without warning, she struck the bottom heavily, the heavy rollers after broaching her to, lifted her clean over the shallows into deep water where the anchor was dropped in 15 fathoms. It was at once seen that she was making water rapidly and the pumps were set going. After a short time, owing to becoming clogged, the pumps could make no headway against the rising water and the ship commenced to settle down on all even keel. At 4 a.m. on the 29th a boat was ordered away, in charge of the 2nd Officer, filled with a portion of the crew and some Chinese passengers and got safely away from the ship's side and made off in a Southerly direction.

At 7.5 a.m. on the 29th the S.S. Hanoi left Hoihow in charge of Captain P. Merlees, and while passing Hainan Head sighted a European boat with the occupants waving a SIGNAL OF DISTRESS.

The ship's course was immediately altered and, in spite of a heavy sea, all were safely got on board and turned out to be the 2nd officer and fifteen of the crew and passengers of the shipwrecked Clara. The mate in charge of the boat informed Capt. P. Merlees that two more boat loads had left the ship and asked him to stand by. The Hanoi was headed inshore and shortly afterwards sighted the two boats, which with some difficulty were got on board. The first of the latter two contained passengers and was in charge of the 3rd officer, a German, whose name we have been unable to ascertain. The second was handled by the 3rd Engineer with a number of Chinese engineers and firemen. They reported that a fourth boat had left with the Chief Officer in command with 11 passengers. This boat had been passed by the 2nd mate's boat seemingly steering about North, while the second, made South. The last two boats were picked up between ten and eleven on the morning of the 29th and they reported that rafts had also, left with some survivors. A sharp look-out was kept and two rafts were made out making signals of distress with their oars. The Hanoi ran down to them and found them peopled with Chinese passengers and some of the crew.

IN A VERY EXHAUSTED CONDITION. Seas were breaking over them and with legs dragging in the water they were half perished with cold and exposure. The Hanoi was rolling considerably, so much so, that the Captain bent down his 2nd Officer on to the rafts to send lines on to the occupants, who were hoisted on board, all reaching the deck in safety. The Hanoi was again got under way and steamed in towards the North Bank, a dangerous shoal stretching out some distance from shore. As far as the 2nd mate of the Clara could make out this was the bank the steamer struck on. Capt. Merlees stood on until the shoaling water warned him that it would be dangerous to go in nearer, and then coasted along the North Bank, keeping a good look-out, right to the North end, but nothing was to be seen either of the steamer or the remaining boats. Again the whole length of the bank was patrolled and, although a light drizzling rain was falling, the weather was clear with a range of vision from four to five miles. The wind was from N.E. with a two knot current running in shore. Captain Merlees continued on the look-out for over another hour and at one time ventured so close in that a N.W. course had to be laid to miss the Middle Bank. Nothing, however, was seen, and at last all hope of rendering any more assistance was abandoned and the steamer was headed for Hongkong and arrived yesterday evening as previously stated.

SURVIVORS AT HONGKONG.

Through the efforts of Capt. Merlees and his officers, 42 Chinese passengers and crew with the 3rd Engineer and the 2nd mate were safely landed. The 2nd mate left the ship at 4 a.m. on the morning of the 29th, she having struck at 8 p.m. on the 28th. The Captain and Chief Officer with the 1st and 2nd Engineers and four European passengers (3 from Haiphong and one from Hoihow) were left on board with a small boat belonging to the Captain and one raft.

The following is a list of those missing:—Captain Ulderup, Chief Officer Hansi (left in boat with eleven passengers and crew) Chief Engineer, Wittmack; 4 European passengers (names unknown).

While regretting the wrecking of a good ship with a possible loss of life too great stress cannot be laid on the good work done by the S.S. Hanoi. Standing by as she did while there was the slightest hope of being of use, successfully taking on board the different boat loads while rolling in a choppy sea and saving

HELPLESS MORTALS FROM FLIMSILY RAFTS by the aid of slings, stumps Captain and officers as some of the best. To take a steamer drawing as much water as the S.S. Hanoi in so close to dangerous shoals, as those in the Hainan Straits, requires a level head and great experience in sea-manship. Let us hope that Capt. P. Merlees will meet with a tangible reward for his meritorious services at the hands of those most interested. It will not be the first time that this gentleman has met with recognition for work well carried out, as he was awarded the Magdalen's button of the 5th rank for services rendered during the Japan-China War of '95 while in command of the S.S. Smith, now renamed the Hue.

The S.S. Clara was built in 1882 and was 675 tons nett register, and has been plying between Haiphong, Hoihow and Hongkong since 1884. It is surmised that she got out of her bearings owing to currents setting her in shore and presumably sank at her moorings, as if still afloat she must have been seen by those on the S.S. Hanoi.

On enquiry at Messrs. Jebsen & Co.'s office, no news could be gathered owing to the wires being down between Hongkong and Hoihow. It is, however, hoped that the Captain and passengers have either safely reached the main land (about 20 miles from the scene of the disaster) or have, with the Chief Officers boat, made port.

The two Europeans landed are Mr. Melhouse, 2nd Officer, and Mr. Frenzel, 3rd Engineer.

ROYAL HONGKONG YACHT CLUB.

The 5th Club Race was sailed over Course 5, i.e. off Chungshue, W. Fairway Buoy, mark boat again, and home. The wind was light from the S.E. all day and very light near the finish. Bonito and Alannah were the only starters in the 1st class, and they got away side by side exactly as the gun went. For about four miles they ran neck and neck, when the wind dropped and Alannah jumped away. The mark was rounded by

	H.	M.	S.
Alannah	2	3	15
Bonito	2	6	21

On the beat to the Fairway Buoy, the breeze freshened and Alannah increased her lead. Bonito closed up slightly in the run back to the mark, but on turning to the wind Alannah began to leave Bonito, which was not going in form. The latter came home inside Stonecutters' which did not pay her at all, there being little or no tide and less wind. Times at the finish:—

	H.	M.	S.	M.
Alannah	4	46	30	10
Bonito	4	57	55	4

ONE DESIGN CLASS. Erica got away first, Min close up, with Colleen and Kathleen in close attendance. This order was maintained for some distance down the harbour, when the wind increasing to a nice steady blow, Colleen took second place; Erica holding her lead rounded the mark boat 1 min. 10 secs. ahead, very little dividing the others. On hauling in sheets for the beat to North Fairway Buoy, Erica and Colleen drew away from the others, Erica still holding her lead from Colleen, the others some way astern; in this order the boats again rounded the mark boat for the thrash home. Here Colleen, by keeping close in to the Kai-chau shore, caught a little on Erica, and when the boats were off Stonecutters it was either HE or LO gaining a little and then the LO kept her under her lee till n

When the boats were close race up the harbour, Colleen here, HE a nice little breeze, which brought her over a winner by 62 seconds from her rival; Min was third, with Kathleen last but closer up than the times would show. Times at the finish:—

	H.	M.	S.	M.
Colleen	4	56	8	20
Erica	4	57	10	8
Min	5	12	10	1
Kathleen	5	18	10	1

2ND CLASS. The Maid Marion and Chanticleer came out for the first time this season, having recently changed hands and obtained permission to sail in the second class. There was not much between the boats in the run to the leeward mark, but in the turn to windward the Maid Marion soon showed she had not lost her superiority to her ancient rivals, and in a falling wind scored her first win. The times at the finish were:—

	H.	M.	S.
Maid Marion	5	34	0
Payne	5	41	8
Chanticleer	5	42	5

Meteor did not finish. The time limit for the month of September being 5.30, the race has to be re-sailed.

OPPOSITION POST OFFICE.

A trader named Li You has come under the ban of the Postal authorities. He was convicted to-day of carrying mail matter between Hongkong and Kong Mun without passing it through the General Post Office. Two months' reflection in Gaol will teach him that although it may not be as rapid, it is cheaper to pay two cents postage on letters and allow them to be delivered by the proper authorities.

PATIENCE IS A VIRTUE.

Mr. Ferdinand Cassial, a civil engineer, stopping at the Hongkong Hotel, on the 28th inst. at tiffin, complained that his coffee was a long time in being served. To emphasize this complaint it is alleged that he struck the boy that was waiting on him. He asserted that the boy had struck him first on the shoulder, but evidently the preponderance of evidence was in favour of the boy, as Cassial was fined $1 to-day by the Magistrate.

nothing else. The robbers were as well armed as their would-be conquerors, having weapons of comparatively recent (foreign) manufacture. Several of them were killed, as well as a couple of the attacking party. The robbers, however, outnumbered the attacking party, and the latter was compelled to send back to the city for reinforcements and all the soldiers now stationed here (hardly more than 100) responded. About midnight the victors returned, with burst of trumpet and roll of drum. They brought with them six prisoners and reported that they had burned the rendezvous of the outlaws, fourteen of whom perished in the flames. In addition eight were killed. The rest of the band, to the number of 40 or 50, escaped to the north. That a company of outlaws like this can be active, less than ten miles from one of the most peaceful and quiet cities of Shantung, is a sad commentary on some of the conditions which exist in China. The six prisoners will be beheaded, the families of the soldiers who were killed will be given a few strings of cash, and the official who ordered the attack will be well spoken of. Then matters will go on as before, and new robber bands will appear.—N. C. D. News Co.

BRITISH SQUADRON IN YOKOHAMA.

There are now at the Yokohama anchorage three of the finest ships that the British Navy can boast of, say the Japan Daily Mail, of the 13th inst. They consist of two first-class battleships and one first-class cruiser. The Albion, (which carries the flag of Rear-Admiral Harry T. Grenfell, C.M.G.) and the Ocean are sister ships, designed to fight in the battle-line and, with the exception, perhaps, of the newest Japanese vessels, are the most powerful of their kind in the world. Each carries four 12-in. guns, two four and a half and twelve 6-in. pieces on spigons fore and aft and on the broadside. Against this the Japanese ships have the same armament with two additional 6-in. guns, and seem to have at the same time better armour protection for their gun positions. Yet the Albion and Ocean are fine fighting ships, though the former looked somewhat disreputable as she came in, with black funnels and dirty white on her water line. The Argonaut is of quite a different type. She belongs to the Disraeli class which, as many think, is a distinct improvement upon the Powderful. This style of ship has a very high freeboard with a low pump and instead of the one 9.2-in. gun carried forward and aft by the earlier cruisers, has four 6-in. quick firers so placed, her complete main battery being thus sixteen pieces of that calibre. Of course, like the ships of her class, the Argonaut is practically unprotected against heavy gun-fire, but, though comparisons may be odious, it is not out of place to state that in the Rossia, a ship of similar type, gun protection has been equally ignored.

THE LATE CAPTAIN COBBAN.

THE FIGHTING IN THE PHILIPPINES.

We are indebted to the Aberdeen Evening Express for the following:— Many of his friends in Aberdeen will hear with regret the news which has just come to hand of the death of A. W. W. Cobban, late of the China and Manila Steam Navigation Company. The sad event took place at his house in Kowloon, Hongkong, rather unexpectedly on the morning of 14th October, for the last news his relatives in Aberdeen heard from him indicated that he was in good health, although engaged in the somewhat perilous undertaking of taking command of steam launches from Hongkong to Manila in connection with the war in the Philippines. The letter received conveying the news of his death states that he was not long ill. Captain Cobban was the third son of the late Captain R. Cobban and Mrs. Cobban, 72 Dec Street, Aberdeen, his father being well known as a seaman in the Australian and Quebec trade with the vessels of the old and much-respected firm of Messrs. Donaldson Rose and Company, Aberdeen. He died in 1864. Captain Cobban inherited his father's seafaring instincts, and after receiving his education at the Trade School and Grammar School of Aberdeen, went to sea, where he has been almost continuously since 1870. His apprenticeship was served with the firm of Messrs Richard Cannon and Company, Aberdeen, in trading between London and Australia. This firm he left to join the New Zealand Company, and was mate on several of their vessels plying between London and New Zealand. Thereafter he became mate of the s.s. Telephone, an Aberdeen steamer, which used to come to Aberdeen occasionally, and of which he subsequently became master. In March, 1884, he left Aberdeen as chief officer of the s.s. Zaffra, belonging to the China and Manila Steam Navigation Company. He was transferred from that vessel to be mate of the Diamante, and one or two other vessels belonging to the same company, and he had command of the Zaffra for eight years. On the outbreak of the war between the United States and the Philippine Islands this steamer was bought by the Washington Government as a transport, and Admiral Dewey asked Captain Cobban to go along with the steamer as commander. This invitation Captain Cobban did not, however, accept. About this time a new steamer for the company—a second Diamante—was being built in Aberdeen by Messrs. Hall, Russell, and Company, Limited, and Captain Cobban came to Aberdeen to take the ship out to Hongkong. At that time he met many of his friends in Aberdeen. Soon after he went out to China again, owing to certain changes in the company, Captain Cobban resigned his position, and was engaged by the Americans and others in taking steam launches from Hongkong to Manila, his experience of Chinese waters being of the greatest service in this respect. He was greatly esteemed by all with whom he came in contact. He was especially a favourite with the Chinese, among whom he had lived for over seventeen years, and possessed many tokens of their esteem, one of the most cherished being a flag with which he was presented of his kindness to Chinese sailors on account. Like his father before him, he was a thorough sailor and a very skilful navigator. Indeed, during his long experience, he is never known to have made a mistake in seamanship, nor was he ever found fault with in any particular. He could navigate a ship when others would have failed, and that, too, in the dangerous seas around the Chinese coast. Captain Cobban had just entered his 47th year. He leaves, in Hongkong, his widow, who is an English lady, and two young children, a boy and a girl. For them, as also for his relatives in Aberdeen, in their bereavement, much sympathy will be felt. The captain's relatives in Aberdeen are his mother, who resides in Dec Street, three sisters and two brothers, one of the brothers being Mr. G. W. Cobban, assistant inspector of agencies on the Great North of Scotland Railway.

PING-PONG RULES.

Mr. Walter Harrison, Honorary Secretary of the Cavendish Table Tennis Club, contributes the following to the Windsor Magazine:—Whilst the game has undoubtedly attained its present popularity under the onomatopoeic title of "Ping-pong," its more enthusiastic and serious devotees object to the somewhat frivolous suggestion which this name conveys, preferring to style the game "table tennis," and there seems little doubt that under this latter title it will live in the long run. Table tennis is played on almost exactly the same lines as the "single" game of lawn tennis, except that, as no courts are marked out, the full expanse of each half of the table is available alike for the service and the return. Whilst the game can be enjoyed and skillfully played on any ordinary dining or drawing room table of six feet or more in length, the size of the regulation match table has been fixed for the present by a general consensus of opinion at nine feet long by five feet wide. The height of the net should be in the proportion of about three-quarters of an inch, to each foot length of the table—i.e., the height of a match net is six and three-quarters inches. Whilst there are a number of different styles of net supports on the market, each claiming special advantages, the undoubted sine qua non is that they should extend six inches or more beyond the sides of the table, thus leaving its full width available for unobstructed play. The general rules of table tennis are very simple, being practically the same as those which govern lawn tennis, with the exception that the service must be strictly underhand, that in serving no "fault" is allowed, and that volleying is entirely prohibited owing to the fact that the game is at present quite in its initial stage, and that no central controlling association yet exists with the requisite authority for framing definite laws and regulations, the foregoing general rules have received somewhat varied interpretation by different sets of players up and down the country. This particularly applies to the "service" rule, as the expression "under-hand" allows of considerable latitude. Difference of opinion also exists to the reading of the "no volleying" rule—as, for instance, in a case where the return would have been clearly out of court if the ball had not been volleyed. The Cavendish Table Tennis Club, which, in its capacity as the pioneer combination of players, has assumed temporary legislative powers, has adopted the following definite rulings in regard to these two points:—"That the service must be delivered from below the waist," thereby disqualifying an almost unplayable service delivered from about the height of the shoulder, and "that all volleying, irrespective of the position of the ball at the time of the volley, shall count against the volleyer." Probably the coming winter will be the crucial point in its continuance or otherwise; but if it be taken up again with renewed energy by those who almost regretfully abandoned it at the advent of the hot weather, its future would seem to be assured.

Owing to the insufficiency of accommodation in the present building and the increasing demand for admission, it has been found necessary to extend the wings of the main building and to enlarge the Chinese department by an additional storey with two wings. The estimated cost will amount to over $15,000. To cover these expenses we appeal to the liberality of all friends of Education.

The establishment has been in existence for the last 25 years and is open to all classes. Much of the clerical work of the city is carried on by its past pupils. As this is the first time we have applied for assistance we expect a generous response. The names of our most liberal Benefactors will be inscribed upon marble tablets, as a lasting testimony of their generosity.

THE NEW FRENCH REMEDY.

THERAPION.

This successful and highly popular remedy, as employed in the Continental Hospitals by Ricord, Rostan, Jobert, Velpeau, and others, combines all the desiderata to be sought in a medicine of the kind, and surpasses everything hitherto employed.

THERAPION No. 1, in a few days only, removes all discharges from the urinary organs, effectually supplanting injections, the use of which does irreparable harm by laying the foundation of stricture and other serious diseases. In dysentery, piles, irritation of the lower bowel, cough, bronchitis, asthma, and some of the more trying complaints of this kind, it will be found astonishingly efficacious, affording prompt relief where other well-tried remedies have been powerless.

THERAPION No. 2, for impurity of the blood, scurvy, pimples, spots, blotches, pain, and swellings of the joints, secondary symptoms, disease of the bones, sore throat, and all diseases for which it has been too much a fashion to employ mercury, sarsaparilla, &c., to the destruction of the sufferer's teeth and ruin to the health. This preparation purifies the whole system through the blood, and thoroughly eliminates every poisonous matter from the body.

THERAPION No. 3, for nervous exhaustion, waste of vitality, and all the distressing consequences arising from early error, excess, residence in hot, unhealthy climates, &c. It possesses surprising power in restoring strength and vigour to the debilitated.

THERAPION may be procured of the principal Chemists and Merchants throughout the world. Price in England 2/6 and 4/6. In ordering, the purchaser should state, which of the three numbers he requires, and observe that the word "THERAPION" appears on the Government Stamp (in white letters on a red ground) affixed to every genuine package by order of Her Majesty's Hon. Commissioners, and without which it is a forgery.

REMARKABLE SUICIDE AT MANILA.

Thomas Brown, seaman on board the British barque Kilverdale, committed suicide lately at Manila in a marvellous manner. He had been confined in the fore-castle for threatening to kill certain persons on board. His wrists were ironed, but he was allowed the use of his legs.
He managed to tie a stout rope to a bolt projecting from the wall above the bench on which he was sitting. His next move was to tie a slip noose and encircle his neck with the hemp. He then slipped from the bench and in this manner secured slightly over a two feet drop that was sufficient to cause his death by strangulation. When discovered, the greater part of his body was stretched full length on the floor, but the head was held by the rope in nearly an upright position about two feet from the floor. His features were composed and there were no apparent signs of struggle or agony. From his position it was evident that he had desired to regain the bench after he touched the floor, it would have been impossible to do so, as his manacled arms were in front of his body.
